SEASON NOW AT ITS CREST

JACKSONVILLE MEETING BEING PATRONIZED BY LARGER NUMBERS THAN EVER.

Mishap Spoils a Well-Planned Betting Coup with Belle Mawr as the Medium-Guy Gray Gets Another Horse Out of Selling Race.

Jacksonville, Fla., January 13.—The winter season of racing in Jacksonville is now at its height and the crowds at Moncrief Park are the largest of the meeting. Today's attendance filled the big grandstand and speculation in the ring was exceedingly brisk. A good card of six events was provided by the club, with a six-furlongs sprint as the feature. Miss Marjorie, in taking the Breeder's purse, was the only winner of the afternoon that had anything to spare. Four of the finishes were close and in two of them short margins separated the first two. An accident in the second race, in which Belle Mawr swerved to the inner rail in the stretch and crushed her rider's foot, spoiled a well-planned coup. Belle Mawr was heavily backed and was beaten a short head by King of Yole. But for the mishap above mentioned, she would have won easily. Davis had to be carried to the paddock after dismounting and will be out of the saddle for a few weeks.

Guy Gray added another racer to his string after Bad News II, beat Premier a head in the third race. It was a selling affair and Bad News II, was entered for $800. Mr. Gray lifted him $300 over that price and secured him. E. R. Bradley formerly owned the colt, but he was taken from him out of a selling race at one of the Kentucky tracks by Lon Johnson.

1. Blume is here from Mexico in search of material. His intentions are to buy about twenty-five or thirty thoroughbreds and ship them to Mexico.

James Blute has about closed a deal for the promising three-year-old, County Tax. Terms have been practically agreed upon, but the sale will not be consummated until Mr. Blute returns from Kentucky.

R. D. Williams purchsaed Fulford of George Ham after his last race. Mr. Ham took the horse out consummated until air. Bucky.

R. D. Williams purchased Fulford of George Ham after his last race. Mr. Ham took the horse out of a brewery wagon last fall at Nashville and succeeded in rounding him into good form agailt.

Frank Gardner arrived from New York this morning with the promising three-year-old, Babbler. The latter shipped well and will be raced here later en.

GILPY BREAKS DOWN AT JUAREZ.

Speedy Racer from Yanke Stable Had Been Heavily Backed to Win Feature Race.

El Paso, Tex.. January 13.—Ideal racing weather prevailed at Terrazas Park today and a well-balanced card attracted a fine attendance. The fourth race was the feature of the day and marked the appearance of W. G. Yanke's speedy Gilpy, which had thus far been unbeaten at the meeting. He was heavily backed to win the race, but when leading by a commanding margin, was seen to falter at the three-eighths post and was pulled up by the rider owing to his having broken down. The fourth and fifth races proved contests of the most exciting order, the fields running well bunched all the way with the winner in doubt until the last few yards. Luna Beall, favorite in the first race, threw her rider on the way to the post, then jumped the fence, which probably affected her chances of winning. She afterwards ran away the circuit of the track after passing the finish line.

Jockey J. Howard was cautioned by the stewards for rough riding in the first race. Jockeys Murphy and Keogh were suspended for five days each by starter Cassidy for disobedience at the barrier.

Crossover, winner of the sixth race, was bid up to $805 by J. Pinkstaff and was bought in by owner F. W. Healey.

A. Greenleve arrived from Oakland today with the horses of E. M. Fry and J. M. Stokes.

J. H. MacDonald traded Nethermost for Creston today.

OAKLAND HAS A THRILLING FINISH.

San Francisco. Cal., January 13.—Azo, Merlingo and Star Actor finished noses apart in the mile and a quarter race at Oakland today. Merlingo made most of the pace, but Azo closed fast and beat him in the last jump. Star Actor ran away three miles after the race and Selden was so tired that Gargan was substituted on Ayame in the succeeding race. Rain fell all the afternoon and the track was a veritable sea of mud.

There were a number of surprises. Golden Agnes led all the way in the fourth and won from Pickaninny and Jest.

T. S. White sold Poppy to James Myers. Early Tide will run in the name of the Spokane Stable and E. L. Jones will continue to train him.

Jockey J. McIntyre wrenched his back in the third race and cancelled his engagements for the remainder of the afternoon.

Rubia Granda was cut down in her last race and was scratched yesterday for that reason.

Jockey Guy Garner, who is under contract to Earl Linnell. has engaged L. A. Cassidy, business representative for Henderson & Hogan, to look after his fluancial affairs and this will include making his riding engagements in future.

PROVISIONS OF MISSOURI BILL

St. Louis, Mo., January 13.—The bill to establish a state racing commission in Missouri has been drafted for presentation to the legislature. The measure provides for the appointment of a commission of five persons by the governor, three of whom shall be breeders and raisers of thoroughbred stock. to regulate the sport of racing. It is provided that racing shall be conducted only between June 1 and November 1, between the hours of two and six p. m., exclusive of Sundays and that licenses may be issued to corporations to accept and register bets by the pari-mutuel method only. It is further provided that six per cent. of the gate receipts at all meetings shall be paid into the state treasury to be expended for the construction of a state highway from St. Charles to Independence by convict labor. Under the terms of the bill licensed racing associations will not be permitted to operate a free gate and are enjoined from admitting minors other than employes into their premises.

UNPROFITABLE AMERICAN SALES ABROAD

The consignments of thoroughbred stock from United States breeding farms which reached Buenos Ayres last November, will be the last to that market as the Jockey Club has closed all but some special races to native-bred stock. The prices realized at that sale were trifling, as compared with those paid for desirable English and native horses:

Dixiana Stud, Maj. T. J. Carson—The stallions (all English-bred), Scintillant, by Sheen, Ormicant, by Orme, Griffon, by Galopin, realized $1,750 cach; yearling colts averaged $40 and fillies $265; mares, with or without foals, $1,450. Thirty-eight head averaged $550.

Elmendorf Stud. J. B. Haggin—Colts averaged $630 and fillies $350. Forty-eight head averaged $400.

Blue Ridge Stud, H. T. Oxpand—Thirtocales.

Blue Ridge Stud, H. T. Oxnard—Thirteen head mares and fillies, averaged $260.

THREE RACES FOR W. O. JOPLIN.

Tampa, Fla., January 13.—Today's attendance at the West Tampa track was easily the greatest since the inauguration of racing. Ladies' day was mainly responsible for the big concourse. New Star's fractions acting at the barrier delayed a start for seventeen minutes. After the race the judges announced that he would not be given toleration at the post in future starts.

Tamar, Elizabethan and Agawam, owned by W. O. Joplin and ridden by T. Koerner, accounted for half the card.

Jockeys Jensen, D. Murphy, Burton and Martin were suspended for two days by the starter for disobedience at the post.

Beauclere will not be allowed to start here in future because of his unfit condition.

JOCKEY CLUB OFFICIALS RE-ELECTED.

New York, January 13.—At the annual meeting of the Jockey Club, it was resolved to continue the work of the breeding bureau. F. R. Hitcheock, H. K. Knapp and Andrew Miller were re-elected stewards of the Jockey Club for the ensuing two years and will compose the license committee for 1911. At a meeting of the stewards August Belmont was re-elected chairman, James R. Keene vice-chairman and F. K. Sturgis secretary and treasurer for the year 1911. The Maryland Jockey Club was granted a license to conduct a meeting at Pimlico from April 29 to May 17 and the Jamestown Jockey Club to conduct a meeting from April 25.

BEAU GALLANT GOES TO CANADA.

Montreal, Que., January 13.—Maj, W. A. Wadsworth, chairman of the State Racing Commission of New York, has donated the fine thorughbred stallion, Beau Gallant, to the Canadian National Bureau of Breeding. Beau Gallant has been in the stud during the past three years at the Genesee Valley Farm of Major Wadsworth. The National Bureau regards this donation as a particularly graceful and sportsmanlike act for it was Major Wadsworth borse, Shotgun, which was beaten by the Canadian bureau stallion, Masterman, at the recent New York show.

Winner—B. g, by Garry Herrmann—Performance (trained by L. Johnson).

Went to bost at 3:04. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same.

BAD NEWS II. ran far back to the stretch, then closed a big gap with a rush and just managed to get up in the closing stride. DREAMER took the lead quickly and showed a fine turn of speed in pacemaking for the first five furlongs, but was tiring at the finish. BERTIS ran well, but was in close quarters all of the last furlong and was cut off by PREMIER at the sixteenth post when the latter bored over to the rail. DECEIVABLE finished fast and close up. MISSIVE quit badly after running prominently to the stretch. VAN ZEE showed speed. The winner, entered for $800, was bid up to $1,100 and sold to G. Gray.

Scratched—93842*Scrimmage, 107; 93892 Double Five, 111: 93556 Gold Cap, 110.

93911 FOURTH RACE—3-4 Mile. (88576—1:11%—7—105.) Purse $500. 3-year-olds and upward. Fillies and Mares. Allowances. Net value to winner $425; second, $50; third, $25.
